PUBLICATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The publications of the Department of State are for sale by the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C., and requests should be addressed directly to him except in the case of free publications, which may be obtained from the Department. The Superintendent of Documents will accept deposits against which the cost of publications ordered may be charged and will notify the depositor when the deposit is exhausted. The cost to depositors of a complete set of the publications of the Department for a year will probably be somewhat in excess of $10. However, anyone may place orders with the Superintendent of Documents for a single series as well as for single publications.

The Department of State also publishes the slip laws, session laws, and Statutes at Large, as well as proclamations and Executive orders. The Statutes at Large, session laws, and slip laws may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. Proclamations and Executive orders may be secured from the Superintendent of Documents by special arrangement.

Laws, proclamations, and Executive orders are issued in separate series and are numbered within each series in the order in which they are signed. Treaties are numbered in the order in which they are proclaimed. All other publications of the Department, since October 1, 1929, are numbered serially as a group, in the order in which they are sent to the press, each with a publication number on the verso of its title-page. This group is also subdivided into series according to general subject.

The Superintendent of Documents has for free distribution the following price lists which may be of interest: Foreign Relations of the United States; American History and Biography; Insular Possessions; Laws; Maps; and Publications of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce.
